Do you like cookies, cakes, and chocolate? How wonderful it smells of freshly baked goods from the pastry shop ... especially from that of Master Cremissimo! He makes the very finest delicacies far and wide. This pastry chef has another enchanting talent: from magically mixed dough, he bakes animals that come to life! One day, Cremissimo makes himself a gingerbread cat, which should smell deliciously of cinnamon, purr at him, and brighten his loneliness. But a cat always remains a cat. As fresh as a daisy, she jumps out of the hot oven and sets off on her first adventure, hunting for mice. Will she realize her cat dream and live like a real cat, or will she remain just gingerbread? This is a fabulously delicious tale about innate curiosity, the search for happiness, and of course, cats. With numerous colorful illustrations. Includes recipe to bake yourself.
